

She Looks To the Sky

by Sherri Youngward

They say she is loved by the greatest of all who have walked in the world
Am F C D Dsus D
He lives far away still she spends all her days content with only His words

Am C D Dsus D C D Am
She often walks alone, but never is she lonely
C D F Em Am
You can offer her anything, her affections are all for Him only

Am F C D Dsus D
She looks to the sky as if He is coming down through the clouds up above
Am F C G
Though no one has seen Him you cannot deny she is drenched in His love

*She often walks alone, but never is she lonely
You can offer her anything, her affections are all for Him only
Am F D E
All the day long she sings sweetly, she says He speaks to her mind
Am F D E
She's only rich with affliction, yet a bitter word you won't find

Am F C D Dsus D
She lives with assurance He loves her too deeply to let such distance remain
Am F C G
She's brimming with longing for Him to come calling and sweep her away *
