

You Are There (Psalm 139:7-10)

G            C            G        C
Where can I go from Your Spirit?
G            C            G            C
Where can I flee from Your presence?
D                            C
If I go up to heaven, you're there
                                  G                            D
If I make my bed in the depths, You are there.
G                            C
If I rise on the wings of the dawn,
                                  G
If I settle on the far side of the sea,
D
Even there Your hand will guide me,
C                            D            G
Your right hand will hold me fast.
